PROHIBITION FIGHT TO BE CONTINUED CLAIM LEADERS OF MOVEMENT

Washington, Dec. 23.—Oppolifying. nents of probibition in congress confidently predicted today that the defeat in the house of the Hobson resolution for a constitutional amendment meant that the ssue was dead so far as action at this session was concerned. On the other hund, prohibition leaders were triumphantly pointing for the resolution and although n range to received the two thirds seen fighting shoulder to should nedy. Setted their expectations had been fulfilled. They declared that despite their temporary defeat, they would continue the fight.

Although a resolution similar to the Hobson resolution is pending in the senate introduced by Senator Sheppard of Texas, adtoday expressed their belief today that it would not reach a vote house rules committee, who vig-orously opposed the Hobson res-photon, predicted that olution, predicted that as a result of the vote in the house, the question of prohibition would not again be brought up on the floor of congress as a national issue for twenty years. Although it was said senger ship on the sea by placing in an official French account of recent fighting that the Germans were now on the defensive everywhere, today's French war office statement speaks of German attacks at four points. The German statement describes several attacks by the allies.

So far as can be learned from these statements there has been no marked changes in positions although in one instance they cap ured nearly a mile of entrenched German positions. References to trenches taken and retaken, to violent bayonet engagements and to heavy losses inflicted show the desperate nature of the struggle.

Concerning the situation in Poland there was little new infor-mation. The German war office said fierce fighting was in progress there and that at some points German troops had crossed, the Brura river on their way toward Warnaw.

THE OLD MAN'S CHRISTMAS EVE.

The vagrant wind on the easement knocks, And crooms a song in the crispy air; An aged man with silvery locks Turns within to his favorite chair. The faithful clock that the past endears In the grate below; the man of years Sits, picture-like, in a reverie.

He is turning the olden leaves of light In memory's golden book of juy, And sees again, with it strange delight, The vanished seems of a happy boy, There are voices sweet where the echoes call Away in time's forests dim and vast: And fancy goes, like a prodigal, Back to live in the beautiful past.

He hears the chime of the Christians bells, And dreams nigain of the mistletoe: And visions dear of the snowy dells Are wafted back, from the long-ago, He rides again in the merry sleigh, And a lady fair is by his side; They talk of life in a cheery way-He is the groom and she is the bride.

But fonder in his heart to hold To live again when the heart is old, And the friends of youth are haid in dust . A free as fair as a fided face Appears, and the dream is broken quite, As coming near with a gentle gence, Says a childish voice, "Grandpa, good-night!"

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to keep your hair looking rich, do by all means set rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody sockees it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple seemely has never been known to fail.
